Re: United States v. Marco Druskovich, Dk No. 22 CR 309 (JPC)
Unopposed Defense request seeking 1-week Adjournment of October 28th
Court Appearance to Friday, November 4, 2022.

Dear Judge Cronan:

In anticipation that the parties will proceed to a Suppression Hearing on October 28, 2022, I respectfully seek a 1-week adjournment to Friday, November 4, 2022 because my associate, Thomas Eddy, has an important personal matter which conflicts with the scheduled date. I apologize to Your Honor for any inconvenience my request may cause. Furthermore, if November 4 is not convenient to Your Honor, I will consult immediately with the Government about dates which the Court deems convenient. In seeking this adjournment, the Government voiced no opposition.

Lastly, I appreciate Your Honor's consideration of this request and if there are any questions I can be reached immediately at (917) 751-5754.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
s/ Richard Palma

The request is granted. The Suppression Hearing scheduled at 10:00 a.m. on October 28, 2022, is adjourned until November 4, 2022, at 10:00 a.m.

SO ORDERED
Date: October 4, 2022
New York, New York
